Dear Brian,

The City of Burlington is in receipt of your June 4, 2019 public records request seeking demographic data for the Burlington Police Department.

The City has identified records responsive to your request. All responsive documents are being provided to you in an attachment to the email transmitting this letter. Responsive documents are labeled as REC001 through REC003.

No records responsive to your request have been withheld in full, but information exempt from public inspection and copying have been redacted pursuant to 1 V.S.A. § 317(c). The redactions are noted in the records, which both serves to identify the portions of the records that are being withheld from public inspection and copying, and the asserted statutory basis for the exemption in accordance with 1 V.S.A. § 318(c)(2)(A), (B). Specifically, the City is redacting:

- “Personal documents relating to an individual.” 1 V.S.A. § 317(c)(7), the responsive document includes day and month of birth.

Since the City has determined that certain information is exempt from public inspection and copying, I am required to inform you that you have the right to appeal exemption decisions to the Mayor, Miro Weinberger, pursuant to 1 V.S.A. § 318(c)(1). Appeals should be made in writing and directed to the Mayor at 149 Church Street, Burlington, VT 05401 or Mayor@burlingtonvt.gov, with a copy to the City Attorney’s Office at the below mailing and/or email address.

Please feel free to contact me if you have any questions.

Sincerely,
